RIGHT TO KNOW COMMITTEE FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS BEFORE THE CITY COUNCIL

Councilmember Frye Continues to Fight for Open Government in San Diego

WHO: Councilmember Donna Frye
Mayor and City Council

WHAT: Nearly a year after Councilmember Frye and former Deputy Mayor Atkins fought to institute a temporary rule of the City Council, reforming closed session practices, the Right to Know Committee's final recommendations will be discussed and voted on by the Council. The temporary rule was passed by the City Council on March 29, 2004. The Council will be voting to make this a permanent rule of the Council, as well as other recommendations that will promote open government in San Diego. The issue of whether or not the City Council should continue the practice of transcribing closed session meetings is expected to be the most controversial part of the discussion.
